

Upliftment of Women

Guru Nanak National College for women has been established by its great founders (late Sh. Darbara Singh Ji ex -Governor of Rajasthan) keeping in view its place. It is a college specially for girls coming from the remote villages of Nakodar tehsil as the name of the college indicates. It follows the teachings of Shri Guru Nanak Dev Ji so far as the education or status of women is concerned "ਸੋ ਕਿਉਂ ਮੰਦਾ ਆਖੀਐ ਜਿਤਜੰਮਹਿ ਰਾਜਾਨ "(on female gender equality: why to call her inferior? From her, the kings are born Guru Nanak Dev Ji).The institution has been performing a great service to the girls of the city as well as of the remote villages by bringing them in mainstream of education. Keeping in view the growing demands of the society the college has setup commerce department, computer department, PG in Punjabi and political science PG in commerce and computer science. The aim of each and every activity of the college is to motivate the students. The college is committed to encourage good practice leading to the all-round development of women students by creating a conducive environment for active learning. It is aimed to provide the future Women.

- Self confidence
- Awareness service to the society
- Academic excellence
- Economic independence

The aim is to empower our students intellectually, spiritually, mentally and physically through various extra and co-curricular activities .Various activities under Career And Counseling cell, Placement Activities, Trade Fair are making the students employable or self employable in competitive era to achieve the goal of institution Our college magazine 'Chidia Da Chamba' provide students a platform to sharpen their writing skills. Through N.S.S.& N.C.C, students reach the rural area and become acquainted with rural problems which they try to resolve thereby reducing the gap between the rural and the urban, the educated and the illiterate, as well as cater to the needs of the society. N.C.C. Cadets are selected for training which makes them confident, smart and upright and thereafter they receive awards and won prizes. NCC Cadets contribute in social welfare and during COVID 19 pandemic, their selfless service towards society is highly commendable. 'Talent Hunt' competition is organized so that the hidden talents of the student get recognition. Teej festival is celebrated in the college campus a festival dedicated the female persona. During the celebration eminent female personalities come in direct contact with the students and the girl students get inspiration from them. 'Lohri Dhian Di' (A famous Punjabi festival) is celebrated in the college campus. It is very good initiative as it gives a message that there is no difference between a boys or a girl Various clubs such as 'youth welfare club Nakodar' help the needy girls so far as the financial position of the meritorious student in concerned. Guru Nanak National College for women tries it best for the Upliftment of the women folk especially rural folk. The institution strives for the quality Education emphasizing Economic Independence of women and creating a responsible citizen for the nation.